

ANI ZADORIAN PROMOTED TO AUDIT PARTNER

The partners of JLK Rosenberg are excited to announce the promotion of Ani Zadorian to partner. She brings energy and enthusiasm to a growing insurance practice where she works with property and casualty as well as life and health insurers. Ani also specializes in employee benefit plans and serves non-profit organizations in the local community.

When Ani joined the firm in 2015, she immediately showed great initiative by launching and championing JLK Rosenberg's program known as WomenLead, providing a platform for women at the firm to collaborate and participate in various projects and events within the firm and with women leaders in our community. Ani also created a unique internship program, the Audit 500, featured in the Journal of Accountancy, exposing university accounting students to public accounting through a mock audit engagement.

Her accomplishments have been recognized within the firm and in her personal and professional circles. She was a finalist for CalCPA's 2017 Women to Watch awards and was recognized as a Rising Star by the San Fernando Valley Business Journal's Women's Council in 2018. The Glendale Educational Foundation also honored her with the Hope Diamond Award in 2019, given to an individual who has made significant achievement early in their career.

We are grateful for Ani's contributions to the firm and our clients, and we are delighted to welcome her to the partner group at JLK Rosenberg.
